Subject: Martial Law – National Emergency

There were rumors of a possible martial law declaration coming up and I told you of that in a previous fax. Martial Law and National Emergency are not exactly the same, but they both involve placing more power in the executive branch than usual, and a national emergency could easily turn into martial law..Martial Law with Obama or Bush – bad news.

You are a democrat. Personally, none of those designations mean much. There are libertarian, republican, democrat and other Sheriffs in Colorado. What the person is, and does, is all that matters. However, it may be wise for you to disengage from the democratic party before the next election. On the other hand, it may not be. I don't know. Just examine, carefully, what the reputation of democrats is in the United States, and in Huerfano County. Then decide which will be best.

The State of Colorado is going New World Order – contrary to the US Constitution you are sworn to uphold, “against all enemies, foreign and domestic.”

Red Flag Gun Confiscation Bill – contradicts the 2nd Amendment
Removal of the Electoral College – Article 2 Section 1 US Constitution
Going against protection from foreign invasion on the southern border
Cultural Marxist ideals being taught in Public Schools

There is no conservative, or liberal, democrat or republican US Constitution. And, the Constitution is easily interpreted. The US Supreme Court has ruled that you, as Sheriff, are responsible for upholding the law in your County.

Of the above, as Sheriff, you only have jurisdiction regarding firearms.

As you know, the US has been in a turmoil over the election of President Donald J. Trump, Please keep alert to the possibilities of politically inspired violence against those who favor his policies.

As always, in the natural laws of the Universe it is not resistance to evil that enables good. It is just peace. It is not fear. It is stillness within, and it is awareness of what is real.
